CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the current position of Lifespot Health Ltd (Company) with regards to the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition, 2014) (Principles and Recommendations).

While the Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory, the Company will be required to disclose the extent to which it complies with the Principles and Recommendations in its future annual reports.

ASX BEST PRACTICE RECOMMENDATIONS

Item	ASX Best Practice Recommendation	Comment	Implemented
Principle 1: Lay a solid foundation for management and oversight
1.1	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management	The Role of the Board The Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to strategic direction, policies, practices, management goals and the operations of the Company. The Role of Management It is the role of senior management to manage the Company in accordance with the direction and delegations of the Board and the responsibility of the Board to oversee the activities of management in carrying out these delegated duties. The Company's officers and management have all entered into service contracts which outline the responsibilities of each of the company's officers and of management personnel when performing their roles for the Company. The Board Charter is obtainable on the Company's website (www.lifespotehealth.com).	Y
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Nomination and Remuneration Policy adopted by the board sets out the process for screening proposed directors and providing security holders with material information regarding whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. The Nomination and Remuneration Policy is obtainable on the Company's website.	Y

1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company's officers and management have all entered into service contracts which outline the responsibilities of each of the company's officers and of management personnel when performing their roles for the Company.	Y
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Board Charter provides that the secretary shall be accountable directly to the board in this respect.	Y
1.5	The company should have a diversity policy.	The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy. However, given the size of the Company and its current operations, the Company is not currently in a position to fully implement the recommendations and statements as set out in the Diversity Policy. As the Company grows, it will implement the recommendations and statements as set out in the Diversity Policy. The Diversity Policy will be obtainable on the Company's website.	Y
1.6	A listed entity should have a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors.	The Company has a process of periodic evaluation and disclosure for the board, its committees and individual directors, as included in its Board Charter. A Board review did not occur during the period as the Company listed on ASX in January 2016 and it is currently intended that a Board review will occur every 2 years from ASX listing.	Y
1.7	A listed entity should have a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives.	The Company has a process of periodic evaluation and disclosure for senior executives, as included in its Board Charter. A review of senior executives did not occur on 2016 as the Company was only incorporated in 2016. It is intended that a review will occur in 2017.	Y
	Provide the information indicated in Guide to reporting on Principle 1.		Y
Principle 2: Structure the board to add value
2.1	The Board should establish a nomination committee	The Board is responsible for the nomination and selection of directors. Given the size of the Company and the nature of its operations, the Board does not believe it to be appropriate to establish a nomination committee at this time. The composition of the Board, its performance and the appointment of new Directors will be reviewed periodically by the Board, taking advice from external advisers where considered appropriate. The	Y

		Board has implemented a Nomination and Remuneration Policy, which is obtainable on the Company's website.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Board periodically assesses the competencies and experience of each Board member and the experiences and skills required at Board level to meet its operational objectives. Therefore a formal board skills matrix is not deemed to be necessary.	Y
2.3	A listed entity should disclose the identity of independent directors, and the length of service of such directors.	At the date of this Prospectus, the Company has five directors, being Tilo Brandis (Non-Executive Chairman), Heiner Emden (Executive Director), Francesco Cannavo (Non-Executive Director), Mark Talbot (Non-Executive Director) and Philip Bekhor (Non-Executive Director). The length of service of each director is set out in the Directors Report.	Y
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors	Three of the five Directors are independent, being Tilo Brandis (Non-Executive Chairman), Mark Talbot (Non-Executive Director) and Philip Bekhor (Non-Executive Director).	Y
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Chairman of the Board is an independent Director. The role of CEO and Chairman are not exercised by the same person.	Y
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Board shall induct new directors and ensure that Board members have access to continuing education to update their skills and knowledge.	Y
Principle 3: Act ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees.	The Board has established a Code of Conduct for the Board and Management. The Code of Conduct will be available on the Company's website.  The Board is committed to meeting their responsibilities under the Constitution and Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) when carrying out their functions as company officers.	Y
	Provide the information indicated in Guide to reporting on Principle 3.		Y

Principle 4: Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
4.1	The Company should have an audit committee which:	The Company has established an Audit and Risk Committee and has adopted a Charter for the Audit and Risk Committee, which will be available on the Company's website.	Y
	(1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and	The Committee consists of all Company directors. The Board believes it is appropriate for the Board to act as the Audit Committee at this stage of the Company's development.	N
	(2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board,	Meetings of the Committee will be chaired by a non-executive independent director member. The Company recognises that it is appropriate that the Committee be chaired by an independent chair who is not chair of the Board.	Y
Principle 5: Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1	Company should have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules	The Company has adopted a Communication and Disclosure Policy to ensure compliance with the ASX Listing Rules disclosure requirements. The Communication and Disclosure Policy will be available on the Company's website.	Y
	Provide the information indicated in Guide to reporting on Principle 5		Y
Principle 6: Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	The Board has adopted a Communications and Disclosure Policy, and as part of this policy, will ensure that all relevant announcements and documents are published on the Company's website in a prompt fashion.	Y
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	The Board actively engages with security holders at the AGM, and responding to any enquiries they may make from time to time.	Y
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders	The Board is committed to ensuring that the Company's shareholders receive information relating to the Company on a timely basis and shall endeavour to keep shareholders well informed of all material developments of the Company.	Y
6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and	The Company provides this option to security holders.	Y its security registry electronically.

	Provide the information indicated in Guide to reporting on Principle 6.		Y
Principle 7: Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The board of a listed entity should have a committee or committees to oversee risk;  (a) each of which has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and;  (b) is chaired by an independent director.	The Company has established an Audit and Risk Committee which shall be responsible for monitoring, identifying and managing risks, and ensuring that these risk identification and management procedures are implemented and followed.  The Committee consists of all five directors. Meetings of the Committee will be chaired by a non-executive director member.  The Audit and Risk Committee has adopted a Charter, which is available on the Company's website.	Y  N  Y
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound.	Pursuant to the Audit and Risk Committee Charter, the Audit and Risk Committee is responsible for periodically reviewing the Company's risk management framework (at least annually) and disclosing, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place, and carrying out any processes or procedures required by the Company's Risk Management Policy as amended from time to time;	Y
7.3	The Company should disclose if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs.	Pursuant to the Audit and Risk Committee Charter, the Audit and Risk Committee will be responsible for reviewing and amending where necessary internal financial and audit controls and accountability mechanisms, reviewing the results of audits, and ensuring the independence, objectivity and competency of internal and external auditors and audit processes and the separation of internal and external audit functions.	Y
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	As a consumer company, the Company is materially exposed to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks. The Company has adopted a Risk Management Policy to assist with management of these risks, which will be available on the Company's website.	Y
	Provide the information indicated in the Guide to reporting on Principle 7		Y

Principle 8: Remunerate fairly and responsibly
8.1	The board of a listed entity should have a remuneration committee which: (a) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (b) is chaired by an independent director.	The Company has not established a separate Remuneration and Nomination Committee. Given the size of the Board and the Company's current operations as at the date of adoption of this Policy, it is considered that no efficiencies or other benefits would be gained by establishing a separate Remuneration and Nomination Committee. The Board will review this position on an ongoing basis as the Company grows. Prior to establishment of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, the full Board will oversee matters usually the responsibility of a Remuneration and Nomination Committee. Upon establishment, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee will be composed of three members. It will, where possible, consist of a majority of independent directors and be chaired by a person who is not Chairman of the Board.	N
8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	The Board is responsible for the Company's remuneration policy and has adopted a Nomination and Remuneration Policy which outlines the processes by which the Board shall review officer and management remuneration.	Y
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Participants in equity based remuneration schemes are not permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme
	Provide the information indicated in the Guide to reporting on Principle 8		Y
